

I am quite happy with what my state is doing to protect my rights.

I don't believe the federal government should be pre-empting states laws in any way.